Producers Notes

This is the 40th Anniversary year of the formation of Upham Players and in honour of that event it seemed a good excuse to bring Lord and Lady Berrington and the long suffering Det. Inspector Gough out of retirement for one last outing.

The cast were thrilled at the way our audiences have responded and the show was a sell out within a few weeks of the tickets going on sale. However they are unclear if it is their acting abilities that have caught peoples imagination, or the fact that our catering team provide a three course meal! Whichever it is, we welcome you warmly to our latest production and hope you have an enjoyable evening.

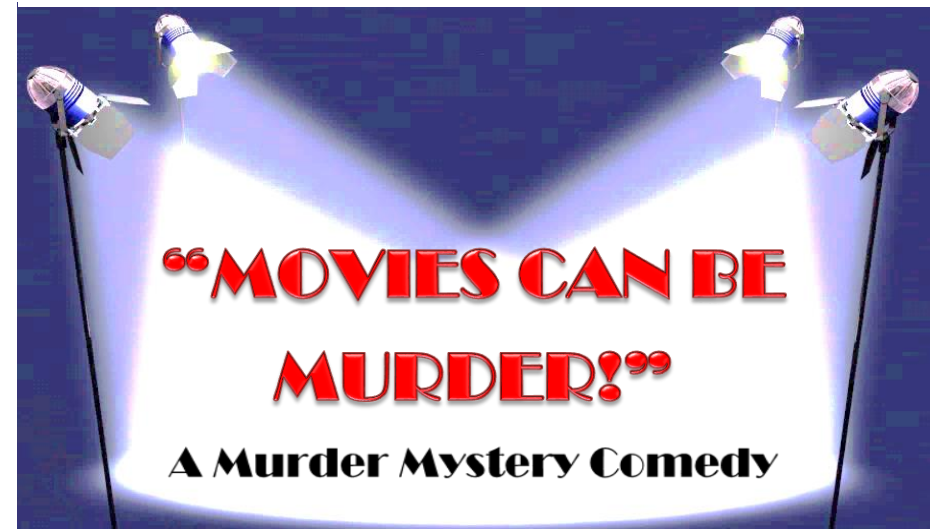

As always the cast are indebted to the many people working behind the scenes to make tonight happen. In particular I would like to thank the stage team for sorting out everything back stage, Louise Pitter, Debbie Pitter and helpers for taking on the mammoth task of catering, Martin Dearlove my co-writer and Derek for his unending patience!

I would also like to thank the Village Hall Committee and the Hall Users who have given up time in the Hall to allow our production to take place.
