

CAST - in order of appearance

Producer - ^{very} Temperamental , reminiscent	Nick Lowe
George - set in his ways, ^{can't wait to} retire!	Ted Barnett
Maud - 'good old trouper', kind, wise	Eve Croucher
Jerry - bright , cheeky, young	Colin Luckens
Author - ineffectual - big but determined	Roy Kimble
Avis - country mouse - idealistic	Margaret Farrow
Daphne - vivacious - stubb blonde	Shelley Pitter
Jackson - efficient, temper (bad actor)	Vernon Cochrane
Mary - wispy student (A.S.M.)	Zoe Henstock
Sandra - } living on nerves , well groomed	Marg Plumb
Norwood - } married & good actor, going to seed	Dave Plumb
	drinks
Doctor - non-speaking	Brian Stanley
Ambulance Woman	Mollie Barnett
Ambulance Man	Paul New

Wouldn't it be good if we could have the whole cast at a rehearsal - just once!

* At least they can practise their lines at home!

PRODUCTION TEAM

Producers - 'Are we the Producers, or are we not?'	{ Terry Pearson & Jane Ashe
Stage Manager - (someone calm & reliable)	Margaret Cochrane
Assistant Stage Manager (Backdrop!)	Derek Pitter
Set Design	David Ashe
Set Construction	good old ... Upham Players Workshop
Light and Sound	Ray & Doreen Thorneloe
Make-up	Jane Philip
Costumes (we won't change the period again!)	Cyn Kimble
Properties	Jess Crutchley
Prompt (not an easy job)	Rosemary Britten
Caller (of cast from pub)	Leigh Hodgkinson
Business	Eve Croucher
Front of House	Lou Yeates & Barbara Taylor
Bar	Sue & Robin Hunt.

Thanks to the Red Cross and St. John's Ambulance, and all those lending properties and costumes.