

March Medley

Playlets and monologues on human society and marriage

Produced by Chris Little and Roy Kimble

The items marked with an asterisk come from 'Mixed Doubles', a series of monologues and two-handers reflecting on marriage.*

All By Myself, by Robert Scott

Larry has been marooned on a desert island for seven years, destitute, alone and without a friend! As it turns out, he's not alone as he thinks...

Cast in order of appearance:

Larry	Ben Brown
Pemberton	Luke Porcher
Ashworth	Tess Oliver
Miller	Izzy Millen
Nicholson	Holly Porcher
Director	Chris Little

*The Vicar by George Melly

The vicar addresses the bride and groom on the nature of marriage.

The vicar

Dermot Flaherty

*Night by Harold Pinter

A couple in their forties reminisce about an earlier romantic encounter, and find their memories are quite different.

Man	Paul Knox-Kennedy
Woman	Mo Peters
Director	Gwyn Halsall

*Permanence by Fay Weldon

Helen and Peter are in their forties, and are not-so-happy campers...

Helen	Jo Knox-Kennedy
Peter	David Bell
Director	Chris Little

Interval

A ploughman's supper will be served. Licensed bar available

A Cream Cracker Under the Settee by Alan Bennett

One of the famous 'Talking Heads' monologues.

Doris	Cyn Kimble
Director	Lorraine Cheshire

*Countdown by Alan Ayckbourn

Happily married for twenty years...

Husband	Dermot Flaherty
Wife	Jo Knox-Kennedy
Director	Mo Peters

*Silver Wedding by John Bowen

A couple are about to celebrate their Silver Wedding Anniversary...

Audrey	Gwyn Halsall
Julian	Paul Knox-Kennedy
Director	Jo Knox-Kennedy

*Resting Place by David Campton

An old couple sit in a cemetery...

Old man	Roy Kimble
Old woman	Cyn Kimble
Director	Paul Knox-Kennedy

Production

Sets	Roy Kimble, Janette Butler, Jane Brown, Derek Pitter, Ben Brown
Lighting	Paul New
Sound	Paul Knox-Kennedy, Ben Brown
Make Up	Alice Maxey
Bar	Steve and Lucy Porcher, Mike and Lynn Lee.
Front of House	Laura Millen, Fionnuala McKiernan, Jenni Bell
Catering	Shelley Pitter and team
Programme	Chris Little
Business Manager	Gwyn Halsall